CONTENTS

No. 1. July, 1933

Proceedings of the American Physiological Society, Forty-fifth Annual Meeting 1

The Influence of Desiccated Thyroid Gland, Thyroxin, and Inorganic Iodine upon the Storage of Glycogen in the Liver of the Albino Rat under Controlled Conditions. Howard C. Coggeshall and James A. Greene 103

The Relationship of the Adrenal and Thyroid Glands to Excised Muscle Metabolism. J. E. Davis and A. B. Hastings 110

Reflex Reversal and Interaction of Allied Vestibular Reflexes. R. Lorente de Nó 122

A Study of Blood Volume Regulation and Blood Composition in Experimental Hydremia. I. The Regulation of Blood Volume. D. Bailey Calvin, Arthur H. Smith and Lafayette B. Mendel 135

Studies in the Physiology of Vitamins. XXII. The Effect of Experimentally-induced Hyperthyroidism on the Vitamin B Requirement of Pigeons. George R. Cowgill and M. L. Palmieri 146

The Fundamental Chemical Changes in Contracting Mammalian Muscle. Jacob Sacks and Wilma C. Sacks 151

Studies on the Cerebral Cortex. II. Localized Representation of Hopping and Placing Reactions in the Rat. Chandler M. Brooks 162

The Effects of Theelin and Theelol in Latent Tetany. Franz Mathieu and B. O. Barnes 172

The Diurnal Cycle in the Liver of the White Rat. II. Food, A Factor in Its Determination. George M. Higgins, Joseph Berkson and Eunice Flock 177

Absorption of Glucose by Chronic Loops of Colon. G. E. Burget, P. H. Moore and R. W. Lloyd 187

The Preparation, Identification and Assay of Prolactin—A Hormone of the Anterior Pituitary. Oscar Riddle, Robert W. Bates and Simon W. Dykshorn 191

The "Basal Level" of the White Cell Count in Man. Malvina Schweizer 217

On the Mode of Action of Secretagogues (Liver Extract) in Promoting Gastric Secretion. M. S. Kim and A. C. Ivy 220

The Effect of Amniotin on the Basal Metabolism of Rats and Rabbits. T. C. Sherwood, M. Savage and J. F. Hall 241

Carbohydrate Metabolism of the Heart during Ventricular Fibrillation. D. R. Hooker and N. D. Kehar 246

No. 2. August, 1933

The Determination of the Potency of Bee Venom in Vitro. C. Wm. Lacaillade, Jr 251

The Influence of the Vagus Nerve on the Glycemic Level. R. A. Phillips 257

The Effect of Adding Liver to the Diet upon the Growth and Reproduction of Rats. Alice M. Bahrs 262

The Relations of the Intracranial Pressures. Lewis H. Weed and Louis B. Flexner 266
Temperature Studies in Normal and Suprarenalectomized Rats. Steven J. Martin and Frank Maresh 273
The Transport of Spermatozoa in the Dog. Everette I. Evans 287
Hypervitaminosis D and Blood Pressure in Dogs. Samuel Appelrot 294
Protein Metabolism in Pancreatic Diabetes. G. C. Ring and C. W. Hampel 300
The Liver and the Respiratory Metabolism of Pancreatic Diabetes. G. C. Ring and C. W. Hampel 306
The Seat of Action of Cyanide on Pulmonary Ventilation. Claude V. Winder, Harriet Owen Winder and Robert Gesell 311
The Seat of Action of Sulphide on Pulmonary Ventilation. Claude V. Winder and Harriet Owen Winder 337
The Sensitivity of the Striated Muscle to Changes in pH. Ernst Gellhorn 353
The Effect of Certain Calcium Salts on the Rhythmically Contracting and Quiescent Uterine Fistula, with Observations on the Action of Posterior Pituitary Extracts. Samuel R. M. Reynolds 358
A Method of Stimulating Autonomic Nerves in the Unanesthetized Cat with Observations on the Motor and Sensory Effects. Bradford Cannon 366
Some Circulatory Phenomena Disclosed by Ergotoxine. Arturo Rosenblueth and Bradford Cannon 373
Studies in Racial Metabolism. Basal Metabolism of the Araucanian Mapuches. J. Pi-suñer 383
Studies on the Fate of Ephedrine in the Dog. Edward G. Thorp, Hiram E. Essex and Frank C. Mann 389
Some Data from a Correlated Anatomical, Physiological and Behavioristic Study of the Reproductive Cycle in the Female Guinea Pig. William C. Young, Hugh I. Myers and Edward W. Dempsey 393
The Effect of Removal of the Sympathetic Chains and of the Coeliac Ganglia on Gastric Acidity. Madelaine R. Brown 399
Experimental Studies on the Glycogen Content of the Perfused Heart of the Rabbit. Percy H. Sprague 402
The Regulation of the Hemoglobin Level in Poultry. S. F. Cook and I. W. Harmon 407
The Elasticity of Veins. Janet H. Clark 418
Studies on the Physiology of Reproduction in Birds. XXXII. Basal Metabolism and the Temperature Factor in Brooding Ring Doves. Oscar Riddle, Guinevere C. Smith and Francis G. Benedict 428
The Effect of Feeding Desiccated Thyroid Gland on the Flow of Blood in the Femoral Artery of the Dog. J. F. Herrick, Hiram E. Essex, Frank C. Mann, and Edward J. Baldes 434
The Chemical Composition of Saliva and Blood Serum of Children in Relation to Dental Caries. Rebecca B. Hubbell 436
Hemoglobin Regeneration in Gastrectomized Dogs. Ralph B. Mullenix, Carl A. Dragstedt and James D. Bradley 443
Electromyographic Studies of the Gastro-intestinal Tract. V. Further Inquiries into the Origin of Potential Variations of the Small Intestine by Means of Certain Drugs. Joseph Berkson 450
Electromyographic Studies of the Gastro-intestinal Tract. VI. Recovery of Characteristic Electropotential Variations of the Small Intestine Following Application of Nicotine, by Restoration of Circulation. Joseph Berkson 454

The Reaction of the Rabbit to Electric Currents Directed through the Heart. G. Harold Ettinger 457

A Study of Vagospasm. The Action of the Vagus on the Heart during Acute Anoxemia. Edward J. Van Liere and George Crisler 469

Uterine Bleeding of Monkeys in Relation to Neural and Vascular Processes. I. Spinal Transection and Menstruation. G. van Wagenen 473

The Effect of Anoxemia in Normal Dogs Before and After Denervation of the Carotid Sinuses. C. L. Gemmill and D. L. Reeves 487

No. 3. September, 1933

Differences between Anterior Pituitary Sex-stimulating Hormones and Pregnancy-urine Substances as Tested in the Male Mammal and Bird. Joseph A. Schockaert 497

Electric Responses in the Submaxillary Gland. A. Rosenblueth, A. Forbes and E. Lambert 508

The Action of Thyroxin on Tissue Respiration. J. A. Dye 518

The Sherrington Phenomenon. IV. A Study of Some of Its Possible Antagonists. J. C. Hinsey and C. C. Cutting 525

The Sherrington Phenomenon. V. Nervous Pathways. J. C. Hinsey and C. C. Cutting 535

Studies in the Normal Human White Blood Cell Picture. I. Variations in Recumbent Basal Subjects and in Individuals with Change of Posture. Edgar Jones, D. J. Stephens, Harriett Todd and John S. Lawrence 547

Studies on Thyroglobulin. III. The Thyroglobulin Content of the Thyroid Gland. B. O. Barnes and Mildred Jones 556

Is There a Specific Diuretic Hormone in the Anterior Pituitary? B. O. Barnes, J. F. Regan and J. G. Bueno 559

Pulmonary Artery Pressures. Cyrus F. Horine and C. Gardner Warner 562

A Study of Spontaneous Activity in the Excised Uterus of the Rat with Particular Reference to the Rôle of the Ovary and Inherent Characteristics of Uterine Muscle. O. G. Harne and E. E. Painter 566

Note on Cerebrospinal Elasticity in a Chimpanzee. Louis B. Flexner and Lewis H. Weed 571

Studies on the Physiology of Sleep. IX. Motility and Body Temperature during Sleep. N. Kleitman, N. R. Cooperman and F. J. Mullin 574

Effect of Diet on Response to Parathyroid Extract and Vitamin D. I. The Relation of Calcium and Phosphorus of the Diet to Response to Parathyroid Extract in Rats. Agnes Fay Morgan and Jean G. Field 585

The Effect of Diet on Response to Parathyroid Extract and Vitamin D. II. The Effect of High Calcium-Low Phosphorus Diets in Dogs. Agnes Fay Morgan and E. Alta Garrison 596

The Effect of Diet on Response to Parathyroid Extract and Vitamin D. III. The Effect of Low Calcium-High Phosphorus Diets in Dogs. Agnes Fay Morgan, E. Alta Garrison and Marguerite J. Hills 608
